Battle of Marathon

Cut out the statements and put them in the correct order.

The Athenians were worried but ran right into the Persian army lines as they were trying a new strategy.	Pheidippides then sadly died.
Pheidippides' last job was to take the victory message back to Athens. He told the city that they had won the battle.	The Athenians began to prepare after seeing King Darius' ships approaching.
The Persians knew they were losing so withdrew, but determined not to leave completely defeated, they went to Athens to attack the unprotected city. The Athenians managed to get back in time to defend their city.	Pheidippides ran to Sparta and asked for help as they often supported Athens, but Sparta said they could not help for two more days as they were celebrating a religious festival.
The Persians were not prepared for this new strategy. They nearly pushed through the Athenian lines but did not succeed. They lost many soldiers.	King Darius of Persia wanted to invade Athens to increase his empire.
6400 Persian soldiers died, but only 192 Athenians died in the famous battle.	The Persian soldiers arrived at Marathon ready to attack. The much smaller Athenian army waited anxiously for help from their allies, the Spartans. When no help arrived, they had to think of a new plan.
