

Learn Something New About Your Local Area

There are many different ways in which you can find out information about your local area.

You could:

- Speak to somebody who has lived in the area for a long time
- Visit a local library
- Use the Internet

When you have found out something new, record your findings in the boxes below.

|   |   |  |
|---|---|--|
| Where did I find out my new information? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> | What did I find out about my local area? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>   | What is most interesting thing about my findings? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>   |
| What else would I like to find out? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>      | Who could I tell about my new information? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> |  A black and white line drawing of a young boy with curly hair, wearing a collared shirt and a jacket. He is standing in a town square, looking thoughtful with his hand on his chin. In the background, there are buildings, a street with a sign, and a fountain. |